CHRISTMAS CAN BE GREEN

(AND SOCIAL, CIRCULAR AND REGENERATIVE)

We're pretty sure this Christmas will be different.

It will be warmer, there probably won't be any snow and, perhaps, your aunt will finally forget about her awful prawn cocktail. We're doing everything we can – and that's no small thing – to make the first two a little less traumatic, should they happen. As for the third, we can't promise anything.

Gifts and merchandising can help mitigate the effects of climate change when you choose the kind of products featured in this brand-new catalogue. Through them, we help give back to nature and society more than we take from them. Every product is our own original and exclusive design, made from environmentally responsible materials and handcrafted by us in Barcelona.

Your choices shape our future. So, if you're going to give a gift, make the social, circular and regenerative economy the most valuable present of all.

Turn the page and discover how you can make it happen.

Why choose Bridepalla?

We're not perfect, but we do everything we can to keep our customers happy.
